

Background:

The following resolution was first passed at Faculty Senate Meeting #166 on November 16, 2007

Faculty Senate Meeting #166 on November 16, 2007. Since then, the resolution has been amended several times.

The resolution was amended at Faculty Senate Meeting #171 on February 2, 2008. The resolution was amended again at Faculty Senate Meeting #176 on May 14, 2008.

Resolution

Resolved, that the Faculty Senate support the efforts of the Administration and the Board of Trustees in their efforts to improve the quality of instruction and to ensure that all students receive a high quality education.

The Faculty Senate further resolves that it will continue to monitor the progress of these efforts and will report back to the Board of Trustees at the next meeting.

The Faculty Senate also resolves that it will continue to support the efforts of the Administration and the Board of Trustees in their efforts to improve the quality of instruction and to ensure that all students receive a high quality education.

The Faculty Senate further resolves that it will continue to monitor the progress of these efforts and will report back to the Board of Trustees at the next meeting.

Resolution

Resolved, that the Faculty Senate support the efforts of the Administration and the Board of Trustees in their efforts to improve the quality of instruction and to ensure that all students receive a high quality education.

The Faculty Senate further resolves that it will continue to monitor the progress of these efforts and will report back to the Board of Trustees at the next meeting.

The Faculty Senate also resolves that it will continue to support the efforts of the Administration and the Board of Trustees in their efforts to improve the quality of instruction and to ensure that all students receive a high quality education.

The Faculty Senate further resolves that it will continue to monitor the progress of these efforts and will report back to the Board of Trustees at the next meeting.

The Faculty Senate also resolves that it will continue to support the efforts of the Administration and the Board of Trustees in their efforts to improve the quality of instruction and to ensure that all students receive a high quality education.

The Faculty Senate further resolves that it will continue to monitor the progress of these efforts and will report back to the Board of Trustees at the next meeting.

The Faculty Senate also resolves that it will continue to support the efforts of the Administration and the Board of Trustees in their efforts to improve the quality of instruction and to ensure that all students receive a high quality education.

The Faculty Senate further resolves that it will continue to monitor the progress of these efforts and will report back to the Board of Trustees at the next meeting.